FEE SCHEDULE SUMMARY

Welcome to the K'ómoks First Nation territory.

This Stewardship Policy is an invitation to all governments (Federal, Provincial and Local), individuals and organizations to participate in a process of land and resource stewardship.

This Policy applies to all lands and resources within the K'ómoks First Nation's traditional territory. Consultation is required to assess potential impacts of proposed land and resource policies, plans and developments on K'ómoks First Nation's interests.

Our traditional territory is consistent with the current scope of Provincial consultation boundaries, as well as the Statement of Intent (SOI) Map that was submitted and accepted by the BC Treaty Commission. A copy of our SOI map is available as a hard copy or in PDF, as well as on our website: www.komoks.ca (under Map – K'ómoks Territory PDF Map)

If you hold interests in the land, water and resources in the K'ómoks First Nation's traditional territory, granted to you by other governments or if you have plans or projects that involve the use of this area, we wish to talk to you about ways in which those interests can be used to better serve your needs and those of the K'ómoks First Nation.
